Business Pulse: Employment growth?

Editor's note: The weekly Business Pulse survey is an interactive feature on our website, phoenix.bizjournals.com, which measures the pulse of our business community. Here is a sampling of comments from this week's poll online, Facebook and Twitter.

More jobs were eliminated, and the last year we had raises was 2006, but none of us are complaining. We are all happy to have a place to go when the alarm goes off every morning.

Absolutely! We are still hiring and growing.

Big zero ... Would love to if business would return.

Yes, Zion and Zion has constantly been expanding. We have hired at least three interns as well.

Yes, and we are still currently hiring.

Nope, winding down one location due to slow sales.

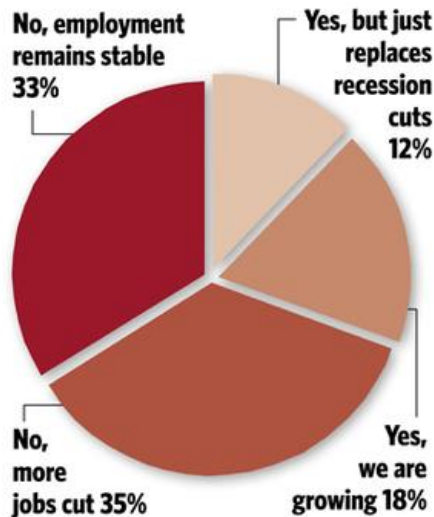

DD&F has hired five over the past six months.

Dircks Moving just added a new residential moves salesperson ... summer is peak moving time.

Spark Design has added employees this year.
